

Qualifications

1. Please make sure that you have read the document “Job Description”.

2. You should apply only if you meet the three minimum qualifications:
 - a. Management experience in broadcast TV and/or cable TV and/or Internet;
 - b. Experience managing technical personnel;
 - c. Experience creating and working within the constraints of an annual budget.

3. Candidates who meet the minimal qualifications will then also be evaluated on their:
 - a. Understanding of, and commitment to, Oberlin Community Co-op’s community-oriented mission;
 - b. Understanding of national Internet operating architectures and associated cost elements;
 - c. Understanding of the cable TV marketplace;
 - d. Understanding of the various methods for transmitting digital information from source to user;
 - e. Understanding of applicable State and Federal telecommunications laws and reporting requirements;
 - f. Technical knowledge and skills related to the services, and means of service provision, used by Oberlin Cable Coop;
 - g. Oral, written and technological communications skills;
 - h. Proficiency with the rules of accounting and associated business software;
 - i. Ability to work with and under the review of a Board of Trustees.